Improve Communication Skills with Free iPhone App

App highlights key messages from Connie Dieken's upcoming book, Talk Less, Say More.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (PRWeb) – August 9, 2009 – Connie Dieken, an Emmy© award-winning journalist and leadership communication coach, offers a free preview of her new book, Talk Less, Say More, (<http://www.TalkLessBook.com>) with the release of a Tapstack iPhone app, now available for free download through iTunes and the iPhone App Store.

In the Talk Less, Say More book and app, Dieken addresses the challenges facing effective communication in a technology-driven, multi-tasking business world. Both formats offer specific tips and takeaways on how to improve communication skills (<http://www.TalkLessBook.com/book>) in the 21st century.

The Talk Less, Say More app provides an accessible and succinct introduction to the book's concepts in a unique format, specifically designed and written for mobile readers. After being downloaded more than 3,000 times in its first week, the app has since been updated to offer readers access to additional free, downloadable content from the book's Website (<http://www.TalkLessBook.com>).

"Talk Less, Say More is about helping people gain power and influence in an attention-deficit world," said Connie Dieken. "With this topic, it made sense to offer the book 's key messages on the mobile app platform, where they are conveniently available for today's fast-paced business professionals."
